MARCH OF THE PENGUINS

This December, Kirkwall BID are asking members of the public to help track down 20 life-size model penguins hiding in windows of businesses across the Mainland.

These beautiful, peedie-plastic-brick models include 19 Rockhopper penguins and one Emperor penguin, all originating in Antarctica. The skilled builders of BRICKLIVE have made sure that no detail has been missed in recreating these characterful birds.

The penguins will be marching into Orkney for a three-part tour, starting in the West Mainland from 1st to 7th December. From 9th to 15th December they'll be in the East Mainland, South Isles and St Ola, including the outskirts of Kirkwall. Then, from 17th to 31st December, they will finish their march in the Kirkwall BID area.

You can hunt the penguins in your own local area and enter one form. Or you can go out and about and fill in a form for two or even all three areas if you want. You might discover some new favourite businesses while you're looking!

Prizes

The more penguins you find, the better the prize draw. Most exciting is a 128GB Apple iPad*, and everyone who tracks down all 20 penguins will be entered into the draw for that star prize. No matter how many penguin names you find, you'll be entered into a draw to win a Kirkwall Gift Card.

So it's well worth entering, even if you don't track down all 20.
